

Prejudice and discrimination in childhood – Children’s agency within intersectional power relations

International conference

29 & 30 June 2018

University of Applied Sciences
Magdeburg-Stendal,
Stendal campus

– CONFERENCE PROGRAMME –

The conference focuses on how children act and learn to negotiate power relations regarding class, ethnicity, religion, gender, and age.

Each panel opens with two thematically related contributions (20 minutes each) which will then be discussed further.

Friday, 29 June 2018

9:00 a.m. Official welcome

9:30 a.m. Panel 1: Practical sites of Childhood Studies

A Peace Psychology Application: “Me and Others” Workshop Series with Children from Turkey

Can Önalán & Özge Kotan Tanrikulu, Association of Psychologists for Social Solidarity (TODAP), Turkey

“KiWin” – Emancipatory action research in Germany

Romy Schulze, University of Applied Sciences Magdeburg-Stendal, Germany

12:00 p.m. Lunch break

1:30 p.m. Panel 2: ReThinking children’s agency

Linking agency, politicisation and social actorship in early childhood: conditions for countering discrimination and prejudice

Jo Moran-Ellis, University of Sussex, Great Britain

Action Potence: How children (could) act in intersectional power relations

Wolfgang Maiers, University of Applied Sciences Magdeburg-Stendal, Germany

4:00 p.m. End of panels

6:00 p.m. Conference dinner

Saturday, 30 June 2018

- 9:00 a.m. Panel 3: Agency and development – Consensus and controversy
Childhood between ,being' and ,becoming' – dilemma and opportunity for changing generational ordering in Childhood Sociology
Beatrice Hungerland, University of Applied Sciences Magdeburg-Stendal, Germany Commentary: Agency and Development of children from the standpoint of the subject
Morus Markard, Freie Universität Berlin, Germany
- 11:30 a.m. Lunch break
- 1:00 p.m. Panel 4: Methods of Childhood Studies: Reflections, applications and findings
Privileging Voices
Allison Boggis, University of Suffolk, Great Britain
How early education professionals handle diversity in their practice. An empirical investigation of adult-child-interactions
Denise Mikoleit, University of Applied Sciences Potsdam, Deutschland
- 3:30 p.m. Coffee break
- 4:00 p.m. Panel 5: Subjugation of children – Children as subjects
Using Childhood as a passport for crossing borders: The case of unaccompanied minor refugees
Sevasti Trubeta, University of Applied Sciences Magdeburg-Stendal, Germany
Empowering children in intersectional power relations: Findings and Perspectives
Katrin Reimer-Gordinskaya, University of Applied Sciences Magdeburg-Stendal, Germany
- 6:30 p.m. End of conference

- VENUE & CONTEXT -

The conference takes place at the assembly hall („Aula“, House 1, first floor) at the University of Applied Sciences Magdeburg-Stendal at the Stendal campus . The venue is found at this address:

Hochschule Magdeburg-Stendal, Osterburger Strasse 25, 39576 Stendal, Germany

The conference will be signposted. Catering will be provided.

The conference is organised in context of the action research project „KiWin – With children into the world of diversity. Promoting inclusion, preventing exclusion“.

KiWin is a project by KinderStärken e.V. and the Competence Centre for Early Education at the University of Applied Sciences Magdeburg-Stendal. It is managed by Susanne Borkowski and Prof Dr Katrin Reimer-Gordinskaya and funded by the German Federal Ministry for Family Affairs, Senior Citizens, Women and Youth through the federal programme “Live Democracy!” as well as by the Ministry of Labour, Social Affairs and Integration of Saxony-Anhalt .

Gefördert vom

im Rahmen des Bundesprogramms

Demokratie leben!

SACHSEN-ANHALT

Ministerium für
Arbeit, Soziales und
Integration

WIR SIND DAS LAND

DEMOKRATIE. VIELFALT. WELTOFFENHEIT.
IN SACHSEN-ANHALT